

P 251343Z NOV 09
FM AMEMBASSY CONAKRY
TO SECSTATE WASHDC PRIORITY 4256
INFO AFRICAN UNION COLLECTIVE ECOWAS COLLECTIVE
CIA WASHDC
DIA WASHINGTON DC
HQ USAFRICOM STUTTGART GE

UNCLAS CONAKRY 000742

E.O. 12958: N/A

TAGS: PGOV PREL ECON EFIN ASEC GV

UNCLASSIFIED

SUBJECT: FORCES VIVES DISCUSS STRATEGY FOR OUSTING CNDD

1. On November 24, DCM hosted a meeting with several members of the Forces Vives whose political organizations are currently involved in disc

-- The current condition of the Forces Vives as a unified group.
-- Plans for if the CNDD refuses to leave power peacefully.
-- Meetings with the UN Commission of Inquiry
-- The possibility of further demonstrations.

Attendees included Mohamed Diane of the RPG party, Amadou Oury Bah of the UFDG, Alpha Ousmane Diallo of the PUP, Boubacar Barry of the UFR, Bor

UNIFIED FRONT

2. Speaking for the group, Oury Bah expressed his satisfaction with the US and international position in regard to the need for CNDD President Vives to work in unison and to sacrifice personal interests for the good of the whole. He said that since September 28, the group has been work

IF DADIS WON'T PLAY BALL

3. The group acknowledged the likelihood that Dadis will not step down peacefully. In such a case, they would rely on the presence of internat

UN COMMISSION INQUIRIES

4. The UN Commission of Inquiry asked for victims of September 28 to meet at individual political party headquarters to give their account of

5. Ghandi Tounkara described a ten-day visit he made to Dakar to visit 11 female victims of rape from September 28. Of the 11 victims, four we

TOWARDS CIVIL UNREST?

6. DCM asked about the possibility of further demonstrations against the CNDD. The Forces Vives indicated that they are discouraging demonstre

7. While the Forces Vives have not explicitly called for a strike, Bory Diallo said that they have encouraged passive civil disobedience. Some

8. COMMENT. At present time, the Forces Vives are adopting a two-pronged strategy to combat the CNDD, involving pressure from the internationa

Moller